WE ARE HIRING

03 BACK-END DEVELOPERS

JOB DESCRIPTION:

The Backend engineer will work in our development team to write reusable, scalable backend APIs & services to support our web application.

- Analyze product requirements and specifications with the team to design and implement backend services & APIs.
- Create and enhance application frameworks of our products.
- Collaborate with the frontend development, quality control, integration, production, and product management teams through the full software development lifecycle.

REQUIREMENT:

- 1+ years' experience building backend solutions in a corporate or startup engineering environment using NodeJS/PHP/Python and/or Java.
- Working knowledge of relational and non-relational databases.
- Working knowledge of REST API design.
- Interest and ability to learn other coding languages as needed.